Our Story

säpon d'orient offers a range of superior quality natural soaps free of chemicals and preservatives.

We are driven to help improve the social and economical state of local artisans through supporting and preserving the cultural traditions of craft. Our mission is to work with local artisans whose techniques are disappearing over time.

säpon d'orient is committed to deliver a unique and antiquated soap following the ancestral Levantine recipe. Each and every one, a jewel of the master soapmaker's craft for over 120 years. Respecting the past. Respecting nature. And respecting an artisan soap-making heritage that stretches back over 3,000 years ago.
